

The Reader nominated for Golden Globes

The film The Reader has been nominated for the Golden Globes. The film tells the story about teenager Michael Berg who begins an affair with Hanna, an older woman. Hanna likes to be read to and that is what Michael does for her. One day, Hanna disappears, leaving Michael behind with a broken heart.

Eight years later, Michael meets Hanna again, while he attends the Second World War trials as a law student. Hanna is one of the plaintiffs. During the trial, Michael discovers Hanna's big secret. Hanna cannot read or write.

The Reader is the cinematographic adaptation of the book Der Vorleser by author Bernhard Schlink. The film will be in Dutch cinemas from 2nd April 2009.
